Berkshire

- 1 Abingdon, Abingdon & Berkshire Bank, Ten Pounds, 1 January 1799, no. 3711, for Child, Prince & Spenlove, signed by Edward Child (Outing 19A; Grant 15A). Endorsements on back, some tiny holes and splits in body and a few ink lines, otherwise very good, rare £400-500

The bank failed in 1816

- 2 Abingdon, Abingdon Bank, Five Pounds, 31 March 1845, no. 11363, for Knapp & Co, signed by Henry Knapp (Outing 20D; Grant 18). Hole on left side, other small holes and lower edge worn with short tears, otherwise very good £120-150

Knapp, Tomkins & Goodall, later Knapp & Co, established the Abingdon & Wantage Bank in 1801. The partnership was headed by Henry Knapp (†1825, aged 69), a former grocer of Northcourt, who served as town mayor in 1805 and 1813. His sons Tyrrell and Henry succeeded him in the business but the bank failed in 1847. The authorised circulation in 1844 was £29,316

- 3 Newbury, Newbury Old Bank, Ten Pounds, 2 November 1814, B 1865, for Vincent, Tanner, Barnes & Hancock, signed by W. Vincent (Outing 1492C; Grant 2016B). Split and rejoined at centre and trimmed, otherwise good fine to very fine £150-200

William Vincent, Joseph Tanner, John Barnes and Samuel Hancock, proprietors of the Newbury Old Bank, were declared bankrupt in 1816. A theft of £13,000 caused a run on the bank which led to its closure

- 4 Reading, Reading Bank, Promise to pay to Mr Newman Ten Pounds, 1 January 1800, no. 6695, for Sir Charles Marsh and Henry Deane Esq, signed by Charles Marsh (Outing 1768A; Grant 2370). Hole on left side and many other smaller holes and splits, otherwise good to very good £80-100

The Berkshire & Reading Bank, a partnership between Sir Charles Marsh (1735-1805), Henry Deane (1743-99) and Eyre Evans Crowe (†1804), opened on 1 September 1788. Marsh was a former army officer who had served in the 84th Foot under Sir Eyre Coote in India and had been knighted for his services in raising a regiment of volunteers in the county. Henry Deane was the son of a partner in the town's pre-eminent Castle Brewery and was thrice mayor between 1782 and 1794; Crowe, a cousin of Eyre Coote who had also served in the 84th, was a dealer and chapman who lived at Sindlesham Lodge. Crowe became bankrupt in 1798 and resigned from the bank, while, on the death of Henry Deane, his son, Henry Boyle Dean, allowed his father's capital to remain in the bank. By 1803 the bank's losses, which had been building up over the years, began to soar and the new management put in place after the death of Marsh in 1805 was unable to halt the problem. The Napoleonic wars and the concurrent boost to business stayed the situation but a number of outside factors during 1814, including a disastrous corn harvest, meant that Reading's trade was so depressed that creditors were forced to call in their loans. The situation was not helped when a coach returning from London with £6,000-worth of the bank's notes on 1 December 1814 was hijacked and about £700-worth were exchanged before payment could be stopped. On 5 January 1815 the bank's doors in Friar street were closed for the last time. Sold with a copy of 'The Earliest Reading Bank: Marsh, Deane & Co, 1788-1815' by T.A.B. Corley (Berkshire Archaeological Journal, vol. 66, pp.121-8)

Buckinghamshire

- 5 Buckingham, Buckingham Old Bank, One Pound, 3 August 1815, no. 13115, for Box, Gray & Parrott, signed by Thomas Box (Outing 348B; Grant 564). A few small holes and both lower corners damaged, some notations, otherwise very good, rare £250-300

The bank's partners, Thomas Box, Robert Gray and George Parrott, between them served eight times as mayors of Buckingham between 1809 and 1840. The bank became part of the Bucks & Oxon Union Bank in 1853, which was subsequently taken over by Lloyds in 1902

Cambridgeshire

- 6 Cambridge, Cambridge Bank, Ten Pounds, 22 October 1840, A 3583, for F.D. Barker, signed by F.D. Barker (Outing 411B; Grant 645B). Some foxing, otherwise good fine £200-250

F.D. Barker, previously a partner in another bank in Cambridge, set up his own bank in Trinity street in 1823 but it failed in 1841; a related poster is held by Cambridge public library

- 7 Wisbech, Wisbech & Lincolnshire Bank, Five Pounds, 3 September 1889, W 8369, for Gurney, Birkbeck, Peckovers & Buxton, signed by Algernon Peckover (Outing 2382Q; Grant 3252). Signature cut-cancelled, a few numbers on front, stamps and endorsements on back and a few pinholes, otherwise very fine £40-60

The Wisbech & Lincolnshire Bank was established by the Quaker grocer Jonathan Peckover (1755-1833), who settled in Wisbech in 1777 and entered into partnership with the Gurneys, another Quaker family from Norwich, in 1782. From 1794 the bank was located at Bank (now Peckover) House, but moved to 12 Old Market in 1878. The signatory, Algernon Peckover, died in 1893 and the bank was taken over by Barclays in 1896

- 8 Wisbech, Wisbech & Lincolnshire Bank, Ten Pounds, 11 October 1894, N 8518, for Gurney, Birkbeck, Barclay & Buxton, signed by G.F. Buxton (Outing 2382AA; Grant 3252D). Signature cut-cancelled, a few numbers on front, stamps on back and pinholes, otherwise about very fine £40-60

Cheshire

- 9 Macclesfield, Macclesfield Bank, One Pound, 25 April 1820, no. 620, for William, John & Thomas Brocklehurst & Co, signed by William Brocklehurst (Outing 1320A; Grant 1803). Very fine to good very fine, scarce £250-300

The partnership of Critchley & Turner, which had opened a bank in Macclesfield in 1802, failed in 1816. The business was resumed by three members of the Brocklehurst family, the brothers William (1784-1859), John (1788-1870) and Thomas (1791-1870), together with one Robert Bagshaw, and relocated to the Brocklehurst premises on King Edward street. The Brocklehursts were local silk manufacturers and cotton merchants at Hurdsfield, and after the failure of their competitors, the town's Daintry & Ryle bank in 1842, assumed a banking monopoly in Macclesfield. The bank was taken over by the Manchester & Liverpool District Banking Co Ltd in 1891 and eventually became part of National Westminster Bank. Its authorised circulation in 1844 was £16,760

- 10 Macclesfield, Macclesfield Bank, Five Pounds, 15 November 1845, no. 700, for William, John & Thomas Brocklehurst & Co, signed by William Brocklehurst (Outing 1320B; Grant 1803). A few numbers and endorsements either side and nicks in edges, otherwise fine, scarce £250-300

- 11 Nantwich, Nantwich Bank, Two Pounds, 4 January 1823, no. 303, for Broughton & Garnett, signed by C.D. Broughton (Outing 1473B; Grant 1983B). Split and rejoined at centre, browned with several small holes and pinned to paper with details of the bank partnerships, otherwise about very good £150-200

Charles Delves Broughton, of Maple Hayes, Staffordshire, and John Jasper Garnett (1775-1840), partners in the Nantwich Bank, were declared bankrupt in February 1826. Following the bankruptcy Garnett, the son of a cheese factor in Nantwich, moved to London but returned to his home town shortly before his death

Cornwall

- 12 Goldsithney, Goldsithney Bank, One Pound, 20 May 1818, no. 217, for Gundrys & Co, signed by William Gundry (Outing 833A; Grant 1215). Rust spots and a few small holes, otherwise good fine £60-80

The bank failed in 1819

Cumberland

13 Workington, Workington Bank, One Guinea, 3 June 1809, no. 192/302, for Wood, Smiths, Stein & Co, signed by Walter Wood (Outing 2428A; Grant 3318). Bankruptcy stamp on back and pinholes, otherwise about very fine
 £120-150

The Workington Bank, established in the wake of an agreement between the mining magnate John Christian, later Curwen (1756 -1828) and Walter Wood, banker, Benjamin Thompson, solicitor, David Fletcher, ropemaker and Robert Smith in Workington, opened for business in 1801. Previously, Curwen's own notes, first issued in 1797 (Finlay, p.48) had circulated, but Curwen scrupulously redeemed all his outstanding scrip in order to promote the Wood issues. The failure of the London-based bank of Kensington, Styan & Adams in 1812 led to the Workington Bank being declared bankrupt with total liabilities of £120,000

Derbyshire

14 Derby, Derby & Derbyshire Banking Co, Twenty Pounds, 18—, D 125, unissued, on watermarked paper (Outing 675F; Grant 5222A). Extremely fine
 £150-200

Established as a joint-stock venture in Derby in 1833, the bank was acquired by Parrs Bank Ltd in 1898, which became part of Westminster Bank in 1918 and then NatWest

Devon

- 15 Axminster, The Dorsetshire Bank, Five Pounds, 5 December 1889, X 3490, for Robert Williams, Robert Williams Junior, Reginald Thornton, Cam Sykes, Reginald Douglas Thornton and Herbert Scott Williams, signed by C. Sykes (Outing 705; cf. Grant 1041C). Two inked numbers at top left and pinholes, otherwise about good very fine, rare £500-600

Engraved by C. Skipper & East. Of the partners in the bank, Robert Williams (1811-90), MP for Dorchester 1835-41, lived at Bridehead House, Dorchester, as did his son, Robert Williams Jr, later Sir Robert Williams, 1st Bt, of Bridehead (1848-1943), who was the bank's treasurer and served as the Conservative MP for West Dorset from 1895 to 1922. Reginald Thornton (†August 1895, aged 73), served in the Bengal Civil Service but was invalided home prior to the Indian Mutiny in 1857 and lived at Birkin House, Dorchester; Cam Sykes was a magistrate at Weymouth; Reginald Douglas Thornton lived at Shirley House, Dorchester; and Herbert Scott Williams (1860-1942), who played cricket for Middlesex CC, lived at Stinford. The bank became part of the Wiltshire & Dorsetshire Banking Co Ltd in 1897

- 16 Dartmouth, Dartmouth General Bank, Five Pounds, 24 September 1818, B 1384, for John Hine & Henry J. Holdsworth, signed by John Hine (Outing 639B; Grant 957A). Good fine £60-80

The Dartmouth General Bank was founded in 1808 by Charles Bulteel, a local merchant. It was located above the Kings Arms tavern, at what is now the junction of Raleigh road and Lower street. One of its earliest accounts was that of Dartmouth Corporation, then controlled by the Holdsworth family. Following a technical bankruptcy order in July 1810, the management of the bank was reconstituted as a partnership between the Hine and Holdsworth families. The notes were printed on paper produced at the Warfleet paper mill in Dartmouth, owned by Arthur Howe Holdsworth, head of the family. Arthur's brother, Henry Joseph Holdsworth (1785-1823), was the active partner in the bank, along with John Hine Sr (†March 1824), who was engaged in the Newfoundland fishery trade. The death of Holdsworth in June 1823 prompted an internal investigation into the bank's affairs which subsequently showed that it must have been insolvent for some time, but strenuous efforts were made to keep a lid on the situation and it was not until five days before Hine's death that the bank stopped payment. The full story of the subsequent court cases to resolve the bank's fate is related by I.H. Smart (Dartmouth Industry and Banking, the story from 1795 to 1925, pp.11-16)

- 17 Dartmouth, Dartmouth General Bank, Five Pounds, 11 December 1818, B 1647, for John Hine & Henry J. Holdsworth, signed by John Hine (Outing 639B; Grant 957A). Good fine to about very fine £60-80

- 18 Exeter, Exeter Bank, One Pound, 10 July 1809, W 118, for Sir John Duntze Bart, Sanders, Hamilton & Co, signed by E. L. Sanders (Outing 755B; Grant 1110). Trimmed and pinholes, otherwise very good £200-250

The Exeter Bank, the first such institution in the city, was established in Cathedral yard on 9 July 1769 as Duntze & Co by Sir John Duntze, 1st Bt (c.1735-95), an Exeter woollen merchant who was elected MP for Tiverton in 1768. His partners in the venture were William Mackworth Praed (1749-84), Joseph Sanders (†1819) and Daniel Hamilton (†1810). Duntze was succeeded by Sir John Duntze Duntze, 2nd Bt (c.1765-1830). The signatory of the note, Edward Lloyd Sanders (†1839), son of Joseph Sanders, was admitted to the partnership in 1810; an oil portrait of him is in the National Westminster Bank archives. The bank was amalgamated with the City Bank in 1901 and after further takeovers became part of National Provincial Bank in 1918 and then NatWest

19 Exeter, Exeter Bank, Ten Pounds, 1 March 1830, A 1892, for Edward Lloyd Sanders, Charles Rogers Sanders, Joseph B. Sanders & Co, signed by E. Lloyd Sanders (Outing 755I; Grant 1110). Signature crossed through and pinholes, otherwise fine, rare £400-500

The Exeter Bank was generally known as Sanders & Co's bank from 1812

20 Exeter, Exeter Bank, Five Pounds, 1 January 1844, J 8918, for Joseph B. Sanders, Edward A. Sanders and William Barnes, signed by William Barnes (Outing 755M; Grant 1110). Signature crossed through and a few pinholes, otherwise fine, rare £400-500

The partners at the time of the issue of this note were Joseph Barnes Sanders (†August 1846, aged 42), Edward Andrew Sanders (1813-1905) and William Barnes (1817-92). Edward Sanders, JP, deputy lieutenant for Devon and the head of the city's Conservative party, lived at Stoke House. He joined the bank at the age of 22 in 1835, became senior partner after the premature death of J.B. Sanders and retained that position until 1901, when the bank merged with Milford, Snow & Co, a career spanning 66 years. The new venture was taken over by Prescott, Dimsdale & Co in 1902. William Barnes, JP, a graduate of Christ Church, Oxford, acquired Great Duryard house in 1853 and a portrait of him hangs in Exeter Guildhall

21 Exeter, Exeter Bank, Five Pounds, 1 October 1896, V 3262, on watermarked paper for Edward Andrew Sanders, Edward James Sanders, Arthur Melville Hood Walrond & Hugh Henry John Williams Drummond, signed by Hugh Drummond (Outing 755; Grant 1110). Signature crossed through and 'Cancelled' written at lower right, otherwise good very fine, rare £600-800

Edward James Sanders (1852-1904), who lived at Stoke House, Heavitree, was a former treasurer and secretary of Devon County Cricket Club who took two amateur Devon teams on two very successful tours to the USA in 1885 and 1886. Arthur Melville Hood Walrond (1861-1946), a former sub-lieutenant in the Royal Navy who lived at Broadclyst and later Pinhoe, became a partner in the bank in 1888; he was the youngest son of Sir John Walrond Walrond, 1st Bt (1818-89), MP for Tiverton 1865-8. Brigadier-General Sir Hugh Henry John Drummond, 1st Bt, CMG (1859-1924), of Bryanston square, London, was associated with the bank from 1893 until its takeover in 1902. He was appointed chairman of the London & South Western Railway in 1911 (having been a director since 1900) and was the first chairman of the Southern Railway in 1923, dying in office

- 22 Exeter, City Bank, Five Pounds, 21 January 1888, D 578, for John Milford, Thomas Maitland Snow and Thomas Snow, signed by Thomas Snow (Outing 757G; Grant 1113). Signature crossed through and 'Cancelled' written across front, small holes on left side, otherwise very fine, rare £500-600

The City Bank, the third such institution to open in Exeter, was founded in 1786 by Samuel Milford (†January 1800, aged 63), a serge and woollen merchant, and Richard Hall Clarke. In 1800 the bank suffered a serious robbery and payments were suspended for two months. When the bank reopened, Milford's nephew, Samuel (1761-1829) led the newly reconstituted partnership until his death and the partners at the time of the issue of this note were John Milford, Thomas Maitland Snow (1817-99), of Cleve House, Exeter, mayor in 1863, and Thomas Snow (b. 1852), his son, who was mayor in 1889. The bank amalgamated with their city rivals, Sanders & Co, in 1901

- 23 Exeter, General Bank, One Pound, 7 October 1822, no. 685, for Thomas, Joseph & George Sparkes, signed by George Sparkes (Outing 758D; Grant 1128). Worn edges and pinholes, otherwise about fine, scarce £300-400

The fourth bank to open in Exeter was the General Bank, a Quaker partnership between Joshua Williams, his son, also named Joshua, Robert Cross and Thomas Sparkes. Initially located in Fore street and then at South street near the wool market, it opened for business in 1792. When the Devonshire Bank closed in the city's financial crisis in 1810, the General moved into its former premises. Thomas Sparkes' sons Joseph and George (†1824, aged 54), later joined the partnership and it was Joseph who built the city's Pennsylvania Park, hence the vignette of William Penn on the notes, engraved by Perkins, Fairman & Heath. Joseph closed the bank in 1836 and the business was acquired by the joint-stock Devon & Cornwall Banking Co which was taken over by Lloyds in 1906

- 24 Honiton, East Devon Bank, One Pound, 10 September 1817, for Richard Smith, Elijah Brooke, James Townsend & George Brooke, signed by James Townsend (Outing 979A; Grant 1401B). Trimmed, pinholes and missing part of top left corner, otherwise very good £80-100

Richard Smith, the senior partner, and Elijah Brooke both lived at Wimble; James Townsend was a solicitor in Honiton. The bank failed in 1821

- 25 Plymouth, General Bank, One Pound, 18—, unissued, for Joseph Hingston & Walter Prideaux (Outing 1714B; Grant 2292B). Extremely fine £120-150

Joseph Hingston (1764-1835), Quaker, lived at Princes square, Plymouth. Walter Prideaux (†June 1832), of Kingsbridge, married Hingston's daughter Sarah by his first wife, Sarah Ball, in May 1805; Hingston himself had 11 children. On 2 January 1832 the bank was merged into the Plymouth & Devonport Banking Co and Prideaux became its first manager, but the following year the name of the bank was changed to the Devon & Cornwall Banking Co, which was taken over by Lloyds in 1906. Prideaux's son, also Walter (1806-89) entered the business after the death of his father; a poet, he was an associate of the balloonist Charles Green and later became clerk to Goldsmiths' Hall

- 26 Totnes, Totnes Bank, Five Pounds, 1 March 1841, B 24, for Wise, Farwell, Baker & Bentall, signed by W.S. Bentall (Outing 2192F; Grant 2976). Star-shaped cancellation punched on right side, otherwise very fine £80-100

The partnership of Wise, Farwell, Baker & Bentall dated to 1817. The senior partner was Ayshford Wise (1786-1847), of Ford House, Wolborough, MP for Totnes 1812-18; his associates were Robert Farwell, Nicholas Baker of Newton Bushell and William Searle Bentall, from the Totnes family of mill owners. The bank failed in July 1841

Dorset

- 27 Blandford, Blandford Bank, Five Pounds, 19 January 1856, no. 6043, for William Coventry Oak & Charles Hastings Snow, signed by C.H. Snow (Outing 210C; Grant 312B). Split and rejoined at centre, many endorsements on back, adhesive residue across back of note, pinholes and a couple of small holes, otherwise fine, scarce £250-300

The Blandford Bank was originally founded by John Bastard, William Sollers and John Dansey in the late 1780s. The assets of the business were acquired by William Coventry Oak, mayor of Blandford in 1850 and 1857, and Charles Hastings Snow (b. 1824), in 1849, but the bank failed in 1858 and caused the resignation of Oak from his second term as mayor

- 28 Bridport, Dorsetshire General Bank, One Pound, 180—, unissued, for William Fowler, William Good & Co, on watermarked paper (Outing 290A; Grant 441). Nick in right edge, otherwise very fine to good very fine £40-60

29 Dorchester, Dorchester Bank, Five Pounds, 18—, D 953, unissued, for Eliot, Pearce & Co (Outing 706; Grant 1038E). A 40mm tear in top edge and pinholes, otherwise good very fine to about extremely fine £150-200

See footnote to lot 32

30 Shaftesbury, Dorsetshire, Wiltshire & Shaftesbury (sic) Bank, One Pound, 16 March 1811, A 218, for Henderson & Co, signed by Chris Henderson (Outing 1917A; Grant —). Many tiny holes and splits mostly around edges, otherwise very good, rare £300-400

Henderson & Co issued a large number of silver tokens, including an extremely rare threepence, many of which are dated 14 March 1811, the day when the bank was licensed. The Institute of Bankers has the companion £1 note to this one, A 219 (Mays, pp.36-7). The fate of Henderson's bank is unknown

31 Shaftesbury, Shaftesbury Bank, Ten Pounds, 10 October 1843, no. 698, for W.B. Brodie & Thomas King, signed by W. B. Brodie (Outing 1919B; Grant 2586). Split and rejoined at centre, printed bankruptcy stamp and handwritten dividend stamp on front, pinholes, otherwise fine, rare £300-400

William Bird Brodie (1780-1863), banker, bookseller and stationer, Whig MP for Salisbury 1832-43, was the proprietor of the Salisbury and Winchester Journal from 1808 until he was declared bankrupt in 1847. By 1811 Brodie had also taken over the banking business in Salisbury begun in the 1770s by Benjamin Charles Collins (1758-1808), nephew of the founder of the newspaper. Brodie, a former officer in the Wiltshire Militia, was appointed Lt-Col of the Salisbury Volunteer Infantry, a unit formed in the wake of the civil uprising which affected the city in November 1830 (Bennett, OMRS Journal, December 2009, pp.239-42, including a lithograph portrait of Brodie). He was an associate of the photographer W.H. Fox Talbot, published pamphlets on banking and slavery, as well as a book of poems. Thomas King (1806-63), a London banker whose country seat was at Alvediston, Wiltshire, entered into the banking partnership in 1834; after the bank failed he became a gentleman farmer at Norrington

- 32 Weymouth, Weymouth Old Bank, Five Pounds, 26 November 1895, W 1041, for Eliot, Pearce & Co, signed by George E. Eliot (Outing 2336C; Grant 3174F). A couple of numbers on back and pinholes, otherwise good fine to about very fine, rare £500-600

The Weymouth Old Bank was founded in 1791 but its fortunes changed in 1885 following the deaths of its two senior partners, William Eliot and Edward Pearce, within a few weeks of each other. Eliot's sons, Richard Ffolliott Eliot (†1906) and George Edward Eliot (†1937, aged 91), carried on the business with Pearce's son, Edward Robert Pearce-Edgcumbe, later Sir Robert Edgcumbe (1851-1929), mayor of Dorchester in 1891. The partners sold off a number of gilt-edged securities and began investing in risky speculative ventures overseas, while Edgcumbe agreed to buy himself out of the partnership in December 1896 but did not have the immediate funds available. The bank collapsed on 31 March 1897, a day recorded locally as Black Wednesday, with liabilities amounting to £500,000, eventually paying just seven shillings and eleven pence-farthing in the pound on its outstanding debts. Sold with an accompanying article by Maureen Attwooll

- 33 Wimborne, Wimborne, Poole & Blandford Bank, One Pound, 5 October 1817, no. 515, for William Fryer, Edwin Andrews, John Fryer & Isaac Fryer, signed by John Fryer (Outing 2361H; Grant 3216). Ragged edges, tiny holes and splits in body, otherwise intact, good to very good £120-150

The bank was established in Wimborne by John Fryer, John Andrews and William Woolfry by 1790, and had a branch at Poole. It was acquired by the National Provincial bank in 1840. Fryer's son, William Fryer (†March 1834, aged 64), became the senior partner and it was he who played a large role in financing the Dorset merchants, shipowners and planters associated with the Newfoundland trade. His eldest son, John (†October 1854, aged 57), is the signatory on the note

Co Durham

- 34 Darlington, Darlington Bank, Five Pounds, 22 October 1895, G/R 122, for Jonathan Backhouse & Co (Outing 629R; Grant 930C); Durham, Durham Bank, Five Pounds, 16 June 1891, C/W 480, for Jonathan Backhouse & Co (Outing 722G; Grant 1071); Stockton-on-Tees, Stockton on Tees Bank, Five Pounds, 19 November 1890, A/F 1430, for Jonathan Backhouse & Co (Outing 2050C; Grant 2766) [3]. Signatures cut-cancelled, otherwise very fine to good very fine £40-60

- 35 Darlington, Darlington Bank, One Pound, 15 November 1814, L 165, for Mowbray, Hollingsworth, Wetherell, Shields, Boulton & Co, signed by George Lewis Hollingsworth (Outing 630C; Grant 927F). Missing strip from right edge and pinholes, otherwise fine £60-80

The partners were Arthur Mowbray, George Lewis Hollingsworth, John Wetherall, William Shields, William Boulton and William Richard Stokes. The bank, located on High row, collapsed in August 1815. With a blue back, this was the first provincial note to be printed in three colours

- 36 Sunderland, Sunderland & Wearmouth Bank, One Pound, 3 June 1815, O 4902, for John & Thomas Cooke & Co, signed by John Cooke (Outing 2104C; Grant 2847B). Pinholes, otherwise fine £60-80

- 37 Sunderland, Sunderland & Wearmouth Bank, One Pound, 1 September 1815, O 9478, for John & Thomas Cooke & Co, signed by John Cooke (Outing 2104C; Grant 2847B). Pinholes, otherwise very good to fine £50-70

Essex

38 Chelmsford, Essex Bank, Five Pounds, 24 October 1851, no. 28028, for B. Sparrow, George Round, I.W.E. Green, W.M. Tufnell and Edmund Round, signed by W.M. Tufnell (Outing 484K; Grant 729F). Two Bank of England stamps and handwritten 'Cancelled' on front, pinholes, otherwise good fine, rare £500-600

The bank became part of Barclays in 1896

39 Chelmsford, Essex Bank, Five Pounds, 20 August 1870, no. 57074, for B. Sparrow, W.M. Tufnell, J.O. Parker, R. Woodhouse & W.N. Tufnell (Outing 484P; Grant 729). Signature cut-cancelled, bankstamp on front and pinholes, otherwise very fine, scarce £250-300

Printer's imprint of Perkins & Bacon on front and Perkins & Heath on back. Francis Hamp Adams (1821-99), the estranged eldest son of Francis Hamp (1786-1849), banker and serial adulterer, of Bacton Villa, was brought up by an artisan family and articulated by his father to a Mr Collins, a solicitor, in Ross in 1837, being 'set free' after his father's death. He joined the bank but, over the next few years his younger half-brother, John Hampden Hamp (†1864), inheritor of the family fortune, ran up a series of bad debts, for which he was arrested and jailed. On 13 March 1863 the Hereford, Ross & Archenfield Bank had to suspend payments with a deficiency of £30,000, caused by the defalcation of a clerk in the Hereford branch by the name of Fryer over several years. The Hereford branch was the prime responsibility of Joseph Morgan, whose personal wealth was declared as £6,000; F.H. Adams ran the Ross and Archenfield office and his wealth was declared as £24,650. Adams emerged from the bank crash with his reputation, if not his fortune, intact and he began to practice as a solicitor in Ross in 1864, living at Upton Bishop

A notation on the bottom right of the note reads 'This Firm to March 1772, when Robert P. the son of Joseph P. the father then being 84 years old'.

Joseph Pease (1688-1778), son of Robert Pease, a merchant in Amsterdam, came to England in 1709 and by the 1730s had established his oil and paint business in Hull, which provided the financial basis for the formation of what is believed to be Yorkshire's first bank, in 1754, in partnership with his son Robert (1717-70). Robert's death meant that Joseph had to choose between an orphaned grandson, Joseph Robinson, later Pease (1752-1807) heir to a cotton business in Manchester, and his bastard grandson, Robert Copeland Pease, the product of a union between Robert Pease and Margaret Copeland. He chose the former and the notation on the note refers
