Walter Wilkinson (1925-2020)

Walter Wilkinson: devoted husband and father. Cosmopolitan. A perfectionist with an amazing eye for detail, scientist and artist, collector, creator, researcher, cataloguer. My Father had a full and varied life, making the most of his time in India, Africa and England to enrich and broaden his incredible knowledge. He had a deep but quiet faith; he was compassionate, intelligent, adventurous, adaptable and interested in so much – people, places, cultures, flora and fauna, coins, glass, wood, etc. He was a caring and modest man and consequently few knew how varied his great knowledge, talents and interests were.

As children my sister, Helena, and I enjoyed nature walks with our Father, looking at butterflies and beetles, fungi and flowers or shells and wildlife on the beach. At home his study was full of jars of termites (including the big queen), boxes of beetles, bugs, moths and butterflies and a few animal skulls. He designed and created beautiful, interesting gardens from nothing in Muguga, Wokingham and Barton-on-Sea and made my bedroom furniture. He inspired in me a love of gardening and woodwork and taught me to paint and decorate with a perfectionist's eye. We went to antique fairs together, he tried to teach me about the coins of Elizabeth I (I was an interested but poor student) and so much more.

Following my Mother's death in 2015 he moved to live with me in Oxfordshire, where he learnt to use an iPad (which opened up a whole new world of online coin catalogues, etc – declaring DNW's site and photographs to be the most superior with such clear pictures that aided him in his research) and continued to follow many of his hobbies and interests until the day of the fall that led to his death a few days later, on 1 April 2020. A further update to The Hammered Silver Coins produced at the Tower Mint during the reign of Elizabeth I was almost complete (and I hope to have that published) and another coin to add to his collection arrived the day after he died.

Ruth Wilkinson

Walter Wilkinson was born in Goldthorpe, near Rotherham, Yorkshire, on 30 October 1925, the son of John and Lilian Wilkinson. He was educated at Highgate Junior Boys' and Mexborough Grammar School. His early hobbies, reflecting a lifelong interest in identification and classification, included stamps, fossils, lepidoptera and biology in general.

In his last 18 months at school, from February 1942 to November 1943, he was a member of the Civil Defence Messenger Service. He joined the Royal Armoured Corps in November 1943 and, following lengthy training at Bovington, Farnborough, Blackdown and Sandhurst, was commissioned into the Warwickshire Yeomanry in May 1945. Transferred to the 43rd Royal Tank Regiment, Walter saw service in India, at Secunderabad, Bombay and Agra, where he served as Regimental Reconnaissance and Intelligence Officer.

Demobilised in September 1947, he was admitted to Queen Mary College, University of London, where he read Zoology and Botany. Graduating in 1952, he spent a brief period working at Doncaster Museum before taking up a research studentship at the National History Museum in London, prior to joining the newly-formed Termite Research Unit, based at the East African Agriculture and Forestry Research organisation in Muguga, near Nairobi. In this post he travelled widely throughout Kenya, Tanganyika, Zanzibar and Nyasaland between 1953 and 1955 – he was also appointed an inspector in the Kenya Police Reserve. Following a year back in London, Walter joined the Tropical Testing Establishment in Port Harcourt, Nigeria (where the photo on the left was taken in 1957), which involved visits to the Cameroons, Ghana, Sierra Leone and Gambia. Returning to London he married Diana Smedley in August 1958, and two months later the young couple moved back to Muguga when he was appointed Forest Entomologist, and later Principal Scientific Officer.

Retiring from the Overseas Civil Service in April 1964, the Wilkinsons, with their two daughters Ruth and Helena, moved to Wokingham, Berkshire. Walter joined the Ecology Section of ICI at Bracknell, where his remit was checking any harmful effects of new pesticides on beneficial organisms, including birds and bees. Retiring in October 1987, the family moved to Barton-on-Sea, New Milton, close to where Walter had enjoyed many summer holidays in the 1930s. Wasting no time ascertaining the local numismatic scene, Walter joined the Bournemouth-based Wessex Numismatic Society, becoming a frequent attendee at meetings and serving as President from 2003 to 2006; at the time of his death he was an honorary member. Part-time work at Bracknell continued to keep him busy until 1993 and he had intended to return to working on his studies of beetles in retirement, but instead turned his hand to an original study of the silver coins of Elizabeth I.

Walter's enthusiasm for the coins of the Faerie Queene was initially fired by the accession to the throne of her namesake, Elizabeth II, in the early Spring of 1952. That year he made his first numismatic acquisitions from, among others, the late Douglas Liddell at Spink. Opportunities to acquire coins from the London market while working in the forests of Africa were somewhat limited, with copies of the Numismatic Circular and Seaby's Bulletin taking up to a month to arrive by mail, but back in England in the late 1960s the opportunity was taken to start a serious collection, visiting dealers and coin shows and making a regular weekly pilgrimage to Charing Cross Market in London.

As he and his numismatic collaborators would readily attest, the reign of Elizabeth I is, numismatically, one of the least interesting. Other than the groundbreaking study of the hammered silver series by David Brown in BNJ 1957, there had been no serious research undertaken for many decades, although that was to change in the wake of the 1978 publication of Christopher Challis's monumental The Tudor Coinage, with the cataloguing of the milled series by Brown in association with Douglas Borden in BNJ 1983, and of the portrait punches and the hammered gold by Brown and the late Chris Comber in BNJ 1988 and 1989. 'The family', as Brown, Comber and Wilkinson liked to refer to themselves numismatically, collected assiduously, never normally competing against each other at auction. If a coin was owned by a member of 'the family' it could be studied at leisure and, with the acquisition of an early camera lucida, an optical device used as a drawing aid by artists, Walter could bring his discipline in the microscopic study of organisms to the world of punches used on coins, as his plates in The Hammered Silver Coins produced at the Tower Mint during the reign of Elizabeth I readily attest. Far from resting on their laurels after the publication of the first edition of their work in 2006, 'the family' collaborated in revisions in 2009, 2012, 2016 and 2019, as new coins came to light, and a sixth edition is in hand.

A true collector who was generous with his knowledge, this writer was especially glad of Walter's insight into the punches employed on the East India Company series, a particular specialism of mine. Previous auctions of coins from Walter's collection were staged in these rooms (the milled series on 18 September 2018 and hammered gold exactly a year later, on 18 September 2019). A further auction of the balance of his hammered silver is in preparation.

The question of recoining the large amount of debased currency in circulation in the first two years of Elizabeth's reign led a committee of the Privy Council to recommend the city of London provide magistrates to check the coin in circulation in market places, and to stamp Edward VI shillings of 8:2 and 6:2 fineness with a portcullis, enabling them to be current for fourpence-halfpenny, and those of 3:2 fineness with a greyhound, thus current for twopence-farthing. The stamping began on 10 October 1560 (i.e. almost at the end of the lis-marked first coinage, which ceased on 8 November 1560) and was undertaken country-wide, with the die-sinker John Lawrence providing sufficient punches to the corporations of 42 towns. These counterstamped coins were allowed to circulate until the early Spring of 1561

- 529 Edward VI, contemporary forgery of a base Shilling, MDXLIX, mm. uncertain, obv. countermarked with portcullis [to revalue it at Fourpence-Halfpenny], 2.31g/3h (cf. N 1989; cf. S 2546). Coin worn and with small crack due to the application of the countermark, countermark fine and clear, very rare as a genuine countermark on a false undertype £400-£500

Provenance: Bt Spink October 1984.

The late owner's ticket states that Chris Comber and Barrie Cook believed that the coin itself is made of pewter. An independent line of thinking is that the local officials at the time responsible for the countermarking were perhaps ignorant of the fineness of a particular coin and so stamped everything dated MDXLIX with a portcullis

- 530 IRELAND, Edward VI, Shilling, MDLII, mm. harp, obv. countermarked with greyhound [to revalue it at Twopence-Farthing], 5.10g/7h (N 1990; S 2547). Coin worn but the date and mint-marks clear, countermark fine and clear, extremely rare, especially on an Irish undertype £2,000-£3,000
Provenance: Bt Spink October 1984.

The late owner's ticket makes it clear that the late Chris Comber and Michael Sharp, and Barrie Cook at the British Museum, were all confident of the coin and countermark's authenticity

Conditions of Business

Conditions mainly concerning Buyers

1 The buyer

The highest bidder shall be the buyer at the 'hammer price' and any dispute shall be settled at the auctioneer's absolute discretion. Every bidder shall be deemed to act as principal unless there is in force a written acknowledgement by Dix Noonan Webb Ltd ("DNW") that he acts as agent on behalf of a named principal. Bids will be executed in the order that they are received.

2 Minimum increment

The auctioneer shall have the right to refuse any bid which does not conform to Dix Noonan Webb's published bidding increments which may be found at dnw.co.uk and in the bidding form included with the auction catalogue.

3 The premium

The buyer shall pay to DNW a premium on the 'hammer price' in accordance with the percentages set out above and agrees that DNW, when acting as agent for the seller, may also receive commission from the seller in accordance with Condition 15.

4 Value Added Tax (VAT)

The buyers' premium is subject to the current rate of Value Added Tax if the lot is delivered to the purchaser within the European Union.

Lots marked 'x' are subject to importation duty of 5% on the hammer price unless re-exported outside the EU.

The provision of a VAT form C88 is subject to the discretion of DNW and will be subject to an administration fee of £50.

5 Payment

When a lot is sold the buyer shall:

(a) confirm to DNW his or her name and address and, if so requested, give proof of identity; and

(b) pay to DNW the 'total amount due' in pounds sterling within five working days of the end of the sale (unless credit terms have been agreed with Dix Noonan Webb before the auction). Please note that, as stated above, we will not accept cash payments in excess of £5,000 (five thousand pounds) in settlement for purchases made at any one auction.

6 DNW may, at its absolute discretion, agree credit terms with the buyer before an auction under which the buyer will be entitled to take possession of lots purchased up to an agreed amount in value in advance of payment by a determined future date of the 'total amount due'.

7 Any payments by a buyer to DNW may be applied by DNW towards any sums owing from that buyer to DNW on any account whatever, without regard to any directions of the buyer, his or her agent, whether expressed or implied.

8 Collection of purchases

The ownership of the lot(s) purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he or she has made payment in full to DNW of the 'total amount due' in pounds sterling.

9 (a) The buyer shall at his or her own expense take away the lot(s) purchased not later than 5 working days after the day of the auction but (unless credit terms have been agreed in accordance with Condition 7) not before payment to DNW of the 'total amount due'.

(b) The buyer shall be responsible for any removal, storage and insurance charges on any lot not taken away within 5 working days after the day of the auction.

(c) The packing and handling of purchased lots by DNW staff is undertaken solely as a courtesy to clients and, in the case of fragile articles, will be undertaken only at DNW's discretion. In no event will DNW be liable for damage to glass or frames, regardless of the cause. Bulky lots or sharp implements, etc., may not be suitable for in-house shipping.

10 Buyers' responsibilities for lots purchased

The buyer will be responsible for loss or damage to lots purchased from the time of collection or the expiry of 5 working days after the day of the auction, whichever is the sooner. Neither DNW nor its servants or agents shall thereafter be responsible for any loss or damage of any kind, whether caused by negligence or otherwise, while any lot is in its custody or under its control.

Loss and damage warranty cover at the rate of 1.5% will be applied to any lots despatched by DNW to destinations outside the UK, unless specifically instructed otherwise by the consignee.

11 Remedies for non-payment or failure to collect purchase

If any lot is not paid for in full and taken away in accordance with Conditions 6 and 10, or if there is any other breach of either of those Conditions, DNW as agent of the seller shall, at its absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other rights it may have, be entitled to exercise one or more of the following rights and remedies:

(a) to proceed against the buyer for damages for breach of contract.

(b) to rescind the sale of that or any other lots sold to the defaulting buyer at the same or any other auction.

(c) to re-sell the lot or cause it to be re-sold by public auction or private sale and the defaulting buyer shall pay to DNW any resulting deficiency in the 'total amount due' (after deduction of any part payment and addition of re-sale costs) and any surplus shall belong to the seller.

(d) to remove, store and insure the lot at the expense of the defaulting buyer and, in the case of storage, either at DNW's premises or elsewhere.

(e) to charge interest at a rate not exceeding 2 percent per month on the 'total amount due' to the extent it remains unpaid for more than 5 working days after the day of the auction.

(f) to retain that or any other lot sold to the same buyer at the sale or any other auction and release it only after payment of the 'total amount due'.

(g) to reject or ignore any bids made by or on behalf of the defaulting buyer at any future auctions or obtaining a deposit before accepting any bids in future.

(h) to apply any proceeds of sale then due or at any time thereafter becoming due to the defaulting buyer towards settlement of the 'total amount due' and to exercise a lien on any property of the defaulting buyer which is in DNW's possession for any purpose.

12 Liability of Dix Noonan Webb and sellers

(a) Goods auctioned are usually of some age. All goods are sold with all faults and imperfections and errors of description. Illustrations in catalogues are for identification only. Buyers should satisfy themselves prior to the sale as to the condition of each lot and should exercise and rely on their own judgement as to whether the lot accords with its description. Subject to the obligations accepted by DNW under this Condition, none of the seller, DNW, its servants or agents is responsible for errors of descriptions or for the genuineness or authenticity of any lot. No warranty whatever is given by DNW, its servants or agents, or any seller to any buyer in respect of any lot and any express or implied conditions or warranties are hereby excluded.

(b) Any lot which proves to be a 'deliberate forgery' may be returned by the buyer to DNW within 15 days of the date of the auction in the same condition in which it was at the time of the auction, accompanied by a statement of defects, the number of the lot, and the date of the auction at which it was purchased. If DNW is satisfied that the item is a 'deliberate forgery' and that the buyer has and is able to transfer a good and marketable title to the lot free from any third party claims, the sale will be set aside and any amount paid in respect of the lot will be refunded, provided that the buyer shall have no rights under this Condition if:

(i) the description in the catalogue at the date of the sale was in accordance with the then generally accepted opinion of scholars and experts or fairly indicated that there was a conflict of such opinion; or

(ii) the only method of establishing at the date of publication of the catalogue that the lot was a 'deliberate forgery' was by means of scientific processes not generally accepted for use until after publication of the catalogue or a process which was unreasonably expensive or impractical.

(c) A buyer's claim under this Condition shall be limited to any amount paid in respect of the lot and shall not extend to any loss or damage suffered or expense incurred by him or her.

(d) The benefit of the Condition shall not be assignable and shall rest solely and exclusively in the buyer who, for the purpose of this condition, shall be and only be the person to whom the original invoice is made out by DNW in respect of the lot sold.

Conditions mainly concerning Sellers and Consignors

13 Warranty of title and availability

The seller warrants to DNW and to the buyer that he or she is the true owner of the property or is properly authorised to sell the property by the true owner and is able to transfer good and marketable title to the property free from any third party claims. The seller will indemnify DNW, its servants and agents and the buyer against any loss or damage suffered by either in consequence of any breach on the part of the seller.

14 Reserves

The seller shall be entitled to place, prior to the first day of the auction, a reserve at or below the low estimate on any lot provided that the low estimate is more than £100. Such reserve being the minimum 'hammer price' at which that lot may be treated as sold. A reserve once placed by the seller shall not be changed without the consent of DNW. DNW may at their option sell at a 'hammer price' below the reserve but in any such cases the sale proceeds to which the seller is entitled shall be the same as they would have been had the sale been at the reserve. Where a reserve has been placed, only the auctioneer may bid on behalf of the seller.

15 Authority to deduct commission and expenses

The seller authorises DNW to deduct commission at the 'stated rate' and 'expenses' from the 'hammer price' and acknowledges DNW's right to retain the premium payable by the buyer.

16 Rescission of sale

If before DNW remit the 'sale proceeds' to the seller, the buyer makes a claim to rescind the sale that is appropriate and DNW is of the opinion that the claim is justified, DNW is authorised to rescind the sale and refund to the buyer any amount paid to DNW in respect of the lot.

17 Payment of sale proceeds

DNW shall remit the 'sale proceeds' to the seller not later than 35 days after the auction, but if by that date DNW has not received the 'total amount due' from the buyer then DNW will remit the sale proceeds within five working days after the date on which the 'total amount due' is received from the buyer. If credit terms have been agreed between DNW and the buyer, DNW shall remit to the seller the sale proceeds not later than 35 days after the auction unless otherwise agreed by the seller.

18 If the buyer fails to pay to DNW the 'total amount due' within 3 weeks after the auction, DNW will endeavour to notify the seller and take the seller's instructions as to the appropriate course of action and, so far as in DNW's opinion is practicable, will assist the seller to recover the 'total amount due' from the buyer. If circumstances do not permit DNW to take instructions from the seller, the seller authorises DNW at the seller's expense to agree special terms for payment of the 'total amount due', to remove, store and insure the lot sold, to settle claims made by or against the buyer on such terms as DNW shall in its absolute discretion think fit, to take such steps as are necessary to collect monies due by the buyer to the seller and if necessary to rescind the sale and refund money to the buyer if appropriate

19 If, notwithstanding that, the buyer fails to pay to DNW the 'total amount due' within three weeks after the auction and DNW remits the 'sale proceeds' to the seller, the ownership of the lot shall pass to DNW.

20 Charges for withdrawn lots

Where a seller cancels instructions for sale, DNW reserve the right to charge a fee of 15 per cent of DNW's then latest middle estimate of the auction price of the property withdrawn, together with Value Added Tax thereon if the seller is resident in the European Union, and 'expenses' incurred in relation to the property.

21 Rights to photographs and illustrations

The seller gives DNW full and absolute right to photograph and illustrate any lot placed in its hands for sale and to use such photographs and illustrations and any photographs and illustrations provided by the seller at any time at its absolute discretion (whether or not in connection with the auction).

22 Unsold lots

Where any lot fails to sell, DNW shall notify the seller accordingly. The seller shall make arrangements either to re-offer the lot for sale or to collect the lot.

23 DNW reserve the right to charge commission up to one-half of the 'stated rates' calculated on the 'bought-in price' and in addition 'expenses' in respect of any unsold lots.

General Conditions and Definitions

24 DNW sells as agent for the seller (except where it is stated wholly or partly to own any lot as principal) and as such is not responsible for any default by seller or buyer.

25 Any representation or statement by DNW, in any catalogue as to authorship, attribution, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price is a statement of opinion only. Every person interested should exercise and rely on his or her own judgement as to such matters and neither DNW nor its servants or agents are responsible for the correctness of such opinions.

26 Whilst the interests of prospective buyers are best served by attendance at the auction, DNW will, if so instructed, execute bids on their behalf. Neither DNW nor its servants or agents are responsible for any neglect or default in doing so or for failing to do so.

27 DNW shall have the right, at its discretion, to refuse admission to its premises or attendance at its auctions by any person.

28 DNW has absolute discretion without giving any reason to refuse any bid, to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots, to withdraw any lot from the auction and in case of dispute to put up any lot for auction again.

29 (a) Any indemnity under these Conditions shall extend to all actions, proceedings costs, expenses, claims and demands whatever incurred or suffered by the person entitled to the benefit of the indemnity.

(b) DNW declares itself to be a trustee for its relevant servants and agents of the benefit of every indemnity under these Conditions to the extent that such indemnity is expressed to be for the benefit of its servants and agents.

30 Any notice by DNW to a seller, consignor, prospective bidder or buyer may be given by first class mail or airmail and if so given shall be deemed to have been duly received by the addressee 48 hours after posting.

31 These Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. DNW hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts and all other parties concerned hereby submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

(d) 'deliberate forgery' means an imitation made with the intention of deceiving as to authorship, origin, date, age, period, culture or source which is not shown to be such in the description in the catalogue and which at the date of the sale had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been in accordance with that description;

(e) 'sale proceeds' means the net amount due to the seller being the 'hammer price' of the lot sold less commission at the 'stated rates' and 'expenses' and any other amounts due to DNW by the seller in whatever capacity and howsoever arising;
